

Born Again (words and music by Don Ruckdeschel & Chuck Davis)

When I think of the years that have all passed by me.
Some so good and some so bad.
Travelin' through life with no real purpose
Wonderin' why I was so sad

He was sent by God the Father
To be our living sacrifice

And I'm born again, and now my eyes are open wide
Cause I got Jesus by my side
Yes I'm born again
Spread the Gospel's what He said, your hungry soul, it shall be fed
I'm born again, I'm born again

If you look at the world, if you look all around us
You see the evil and the sin
It seems like Satan's world's getting bigger
Spreading God's Word's how we win

We should do His work and know His pain
He died for all our worldly sins

Yes I'm born again, and now my heart is open wide
Cause I got Jesus by my side
Yes I'm born again,
Spread the Gospel 's what He said, your hungry soul it shall be fed
I'm born again,
I'm born again,
I'm born again,
I'm born again
