

The Need To Know Lyrics by Melissa Mooneyham

Music by Richard Blauvelt

I need to know You
to know who You are.
To know Your Spirit's Call ing.
I need to press in.
I need to be - gin.
I really need to know You. (2x)

Lord my heart aches
to know who You are.
Know Your Spirit in it's Fullness.
Lord my heart breaks
to be where you are.
That I might behold Your Glorious Face.

I need to know You
to know who You are.
Show me Your loving kindness.
I need to press in.
I need to begin.
I really need to know You.

I need to know You
to know who You are.
To fear Your Awesome Greatness.
I need to press in.
I need to begin.
I really need to know You

Lord my heart aches
to know who You are.
Know Your Spirit in it's Fullness.
Lord my heart breaks
to be where you are.
That I might behold Your Glorious Face.

I need to know You
to know who You are.
To know Your Spirit's Calling.
I need to press in.
I need to begin.
I really need to know You
