Richard Blauvelt

The first system of the musical score consists of three staves. The top staff is a treble clef with a key signature of three flats (B-flat, E-flat, A-flat) and a 6/8 time signature. It contains six measures of whole rests. The middle staff is a grand staff (treble and bass clefs) with a key signature of three flats and a 6/8 time signature. It features a continuous eighth-note accompaniment in the right hand and a bass line in the left hand. The bass line starts with a whole note and then moves to half notes. There are asterisks under the first, third, and fifth measures of the right hand.

The second system of the musical score includes a vocal line and piano accompaniment. The vocal line is in a treble clef with a key signature of three flats and a 6/8 time signature. It contains six measures of music. Above the vocal line, the chords Fmin(2), Db(2), and Ab are indicated. The lyrics are: "God speaks to Mos - es; Says He has heard cries from the child - ren of". The piano accompaniment continues with the same eighth-note pattern as the first system, with asterisks under the first, third, and fifth measures of the right hand.

The third system of the musical score includes a vocal line and piano accompaniment. The vocal line is in a treble clef with a key signature of three flats and a 6/8 time signature. It contains six measures of music. Above the vocal line, the chords Eb, Fmin(2), Db(2), Ab, and Eb are indicated. The lyrics are: "God. Cries of His peo - ple; Cries from the heart; Cries of the poor and down - trod." The piano accompaniment continues with the same eighth-note pattern as the first system, with asterisks under the first, third, and fifth measures of the right hand.
